

Company	BNP Paribas		Commerzbank		Deutsche Bank		ING		UniCredit
	SI	BI	SI	BI	SI	BI	SI	BI	SI	BI
Paladin Energy
Rheinmetall			98.57		98.57	166.67			98.57	166.67
Rio Tinto		726.70				665.20
Samsung Electronics
Royal Dutch Shell
Textron
Vale		328.13				312.87
Vedanta Resources										129.67
Wilmar International
Involved in # of companies	9		3		10		2		4
Total Value	1,053	3,441	217	281	184	3,122	119	891	99	1,187

Table 4 looks at the (estimated) value of the participation of the selected financial institutional institutions in loans obtained by the selected companies since January 2010. BNP Paribas scores highest with a total involvement of € 5,674 million. It is followed by ING with € 3,760 million and UniCredit with € 3,094 million. Deutsche Bank participated in loans with a total value of € 2,287 million.

In terms of relationships with the selected companies, BNP Paribas and Deutsche Bank had most links; both participated in loans for 13 of the 28 companies. ING participated in loans for seven companies. For five banks, Argenta, BayernLB, DZ Bank, LBBW and PKO Polski Bank, no participation in loans for the selected companies was found.